Centre Consulting's Barbara Kinosky Appointed to National Contract Management Association's Executive Advisory Council

VIENNA, Va.—June 24, 2009—Barbara Kinosky, Esq., principal and president of Centre Consulting, Inc., and Centre Law Group LLC, was appointed to the National Contract Management Association (NCMA) Executive Advisory Council (EAC) effective July 1, 2009, to June 30, 2010, by NCMA President Gary Poleskey. As a member of the EAC, Ms. Kinosky will provide top-level counsel to NCMA national officers on issues of importance to the contract management profession, continuing her service to the association, which has included numerous speaking engagements at the national and chapter levels.

Additionally, Ms. Kinosky was instrumental in developing the Centre-NCMA joint Certified Schedules Contracts Manager certificate program, the de facto industry standard designation of knowledge and achievement in GSA Federal Supply Schedule contracting. This program leverages Centre's acclaimed contracts training, through its Federal Contracting Institute (FCI), which is predicated on the decades' experience of Centre's partners and professionals with GSA Schedule negotiations, audits, and administration. Ms. Kinosky has taught hundreds of government and industry professionals through FCI, and authored many of its courses, including the popular Boot Camp for GSA/VA Schedule Contracting.

Ms. Kinosky is a member of the Virginia and District of Columbia bars, and a graduate of George Mason University's School of Law, where she was associate editor of the Law Review. As president of Centre Consulting and Centre Law, Ms. Kinosky oversees the companies' acquisition training, GSA schedule, contracts consulting, business development, and legal practices.
