CENTRE CONSULTING NAMED REGISTERED EDUCATION PROVIDER BY THE PROJECT MANAGEMENT INSTITUTE

VIENNA, Va.—March 10, 2008—Centre Consulting, Inc.'s Federal Contracting Institute (FCI), the leading training provider focused on the federal government acquisition space, was recognized by the Project Management Institute (PMI) as a Registered Education Provider. As such, FCI will immediately begin offering Interest-Based Negotiation and Communication Skills for Project Managers for Professional Development Units (PDUs).

FCI will also offer the full spectrum of courses to satisfy the requirements of civilian agencies' new Federal Acquisition Certification for Program and Project Managers, in addition to its current offerings for contracting officers and contracting officers' technical representative.

Barbara S. Kinosky, Centre president, said, "We are excited to help the federal government improve and expand the knowledge base of its program and project managers. As a leader in educating acquisition professionals, we have seen the benefits classroom training provides."
