Centre Consulting Announces Jim Williams, GSA Federal Acquisition Service Commissioner, Keynote Speaker for 2009 GSA Update Breakfast

VIENNA, Va.—June 3, 2009—James A. Williams, commissioner of GSA's Federal Acquisition Service, will keynote Centre Consulting, Inc.'s 2009 GSA Update Breakfast on Tuesday, June 30. This annual event, moderated by Centre Consulting President Barbara S. Kinosky, Esq., provides attendees the latest federal acquisition news, trends, and predictions from senior GSA officials.

As Federal Acquisition Service commissioner, Mr. Williams is responsible for ten program areas, including the GSA Multiple Award Schedules, GWACs, and motor vehicle services. Mr. Williams previously served as acting administrator of GSA, presiding over this leading acquisition agency for the federal government and responsible for the management of nearly 12,000 employees and more than one-fourth of the government's total procurement dollars.

Mr. Williams will speak about stimulus spending, green contracting issues, and acquisition challenges, and take questions at this off-the-record event. For further information or to register, contact Wendy Murrah at 703 288-2800 or wmurrah@centreconsult.com, or visit <http://centreconsult.com>
