Centre Names Vice President

VIENNA, Va.—December 12, 2011—Centre Consulting, Inc., announced Friday that Maureen Jamieson has been named Vice President for Centre Consulting. Previously Ms. Jamieson served as a Senior Consultant and Manager of Centre’s GSA Schedule Group.

Ms. Jamieson has brought twenty-five years of dedicated federal procurement experience to Centre. As Senior Consultant Maureen has been extremely effective in solving client pricing problems and implementing effective pricing strategies for placing products and services on GSA Schedule contracts. Maureen also frequently works with clients on effective selling and marketing strategies in the federal market space and is highly skilled as a federal contracts capture or proposal manager. “We are exceedingly pleased to announce this appointment as Maureen has done a stellar job of managing our best in industry GSA Schedule consulting team,” said Barbara Kinosky, Centre’s president. “This new position will allow Centre to leverage Maureen’s strong capabilities in the areas of federal business development and contract pricing for the benefit of companies seeking to enter or “up their game” in the federal market.”
