Senior Attorney at Centre Law to speak at ABA Intellectual Property Law Conference

VIENNA, Va.—January 12, 2012—Centre Law Group’s Senior Attorney, Eric Crusius, Esq., has been officially announced as a speaker at the American Bar Association’s Intellectual Property Law Conference. Mr. Crusius will be speaking on the Best Practices for a Successful Mediation of a Patent Dispute panel about recent case law and legislative developments regarding trademarks and the Internet. The Conference is schedule to be held March 28-30, 2012 in Arlington, VA at Crystal Gateway Marriott.

Mr. Crusius has extensive experience in developing strategies for and managing all stages of complex multi-million dollar complex commercial, intellectual property, and government contracts matters in various state and federal courts from commencement through trial. Eric, who has been a trusted legal advisor to many businesses throughout his career, has also lectured extensively on litigation, intellectual property, and federal procurement issues to government agencies, industry groups and the American Bar Association. In 2010, Eric obtained one of the largest non-negligence related verdicts in Virginia.
