Barbara Kinosky, Esq. and James Phillips, Esq. nominated as SmartCEO Magazine's Legal Elite

Barbara Kinosky, Esq. and James (Jim) Phillips, Esq. have both been nominated by SmartCEO Magazine's readers as "Legal Elite", a list of 120 top go-to business attorneys in the Greater Washington area. Barbara and Jim are featured in the December issue as "Legal Elite" nominees. Attorneys nominated as Legal Elite are selected by SmartCEO readers which consist of 17,000 CEO's, Business Owners, and C-level executives in the Washington area with an estimated 85% of those readers being CEO's.

Barbara Kinosky is the President of Centre Consulting and a partner in Centre Law Group and has over twenty years of experience in federal government contracts. Centre Law, Centre Consulting, and the Federal Contracting Institute offer integrated legal services, GSA and federal market consulting, and training within the federal contracting industry. Barbara teaches hundreds of government and contractor employees on a wide variety of subjects. Barbara is a consultant to both Fortune 500 companies and federal government agencies on a wide variety of topics including performance based contracting, commercial contracting and FAR compliance issues. Barbara is honored to receive the nomination and make the list.

Jim Phillips is the Executive Vice President of Centre Consulting and a partner in Centre Law Group. He manages Centre's consulting services division where he regularly provides critical advice to government and industry clients on GSA and VA Schedule issues, and federal compliance issues. Jim and the team of consultants that he manages are highly accomplished in performing a wide spectrum of federal market support services, including federal market research, federal market analysis, competitive proposal development and support services, GSA and VA FSS contract acquisition services and teaming and partnering strategic development services.
